Oh, good morning - please don't be alarmed by my intrusion, as I am no threat and was simply seeking lodging for the night. I hope you don't mind me clipping my toenails on your coffee table ,

Father,
Let me remind you of that ACOG for my clone build of a GWOT M4A1. I would also like to inform you I am still waiting on that Jap. copy of Bomberman 64. You should know that you will likely bury me, not the other way around, lest I receive these Springtime gifts.
